Defense Wins FBI Report

Receives Copy of Statement By Clinton School Official

KONXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Federal Judge Robert L. Taylor handed to defense counsel the copy of the oral statement made by R. G. Crossno, Clinton school board official, to the FBI.

Taylor said, however, that this ruling did not mean that the defense would get all the FBI documents in the Clinton segregation cases.

Negroes Said Kidnaped Are Returned

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two young Negro men who reportedly were kidnaped by a group of armed white men returned home early today. One said they were taken into the woods and beaten with rubber hoses.

Harold Cunningham, 19, said he and Henry Silent, 21, were driven to a wooded area and beaten after being questioned about where they were "two Saturdays ago."

"I don't know what they were talking about," Cunningham said. "Henry and I were working together for a paper company two Saturdays ago."

Two girls who dated the men last night said they were stopped by the white men after the Negro couples had driven into a white drive-in ice cream stand, and then left because it was too crowded.

The two girls, Loretta Washington, 17, and Aileen Brown, 23, were questioned extensively by police last night. They reported the alleged kidnaping occurred shortly after 9 p. m.

Police Sgt. M. H. House said officers had considered the possibility of a hoax, but added: "We feel that this is a bonafide situation. The two girls are sober, and I have no reason to believe that they would lie about a thing as serious as this."

House said both the women were nearly hysterical when the police reached the scene.

Officers J. O. Kelly, J. D. Lewis and L. Jack Warren agreed that the Negroes apparently were unknown to their assailants.

Police said they lacked an adequate description of the men and the two automobiles in which they were last seen.

Man Is Charged With Attempted Murder of Priest

RIDGEWAY, Ont. (AP)—A man whose jaw was allegedly broken in a fight July 4 with a 250-pound social-worker priest from Buffalo, N.Y., has been charged with attempted murder.

The charge against Robert A. Rosenberger, 57, was made on complaint of the Very Rev. Msgr. Franklin M. Kelliher, 53, director of the Working Boys' Home in Buffalo, N.Y. Msgr. Kelliher, a 250-pound wrestler, is widely known in Buffalo for his work in fighting juvenile delinquency.

He told police Rosenberger tried to run him down in an automobile, then left the car to attack him with a butcher knife.

In a short fight which followed, he told police, Rosenberger's jaw was broken and he suffered other injuries which sent him to a hospital.

He was released yesterday and surrendered to police here.

The priest, who owns a summer home about a block away from Rosenberger's in this resort area, told newsmen: "I don't know the man at all and I can give no reason for the attack."

He said Rosenberger telephoned him four times July 4 using "vile and obscene language."

Msgr. Kelliher said he then arranged to meet Rosenberger that night to talk to him in person.

Weather Generally Fair; No Moisture

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Moisture is out of the Missouri weather picture.

The forecast says only that it will be generally fair and warmer this afternoon, tonight and Friday. Highs Friday are expected generally in the 90s. Highs in the state yesterday was 85 at Kirksville.

Accept Wage Offers

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Unionized security guards at the nearby atomic test site voted last night to accept the latest company offer on wages and other benefits, the union announced.

The Independent Guards Assn. of Nevada had set a strike deadline of July 16. They are employed by Federal Services, Inc., which is under contract to the Atomic Energy Commission to provide security protection. Approximately 125 guards were involved in the dispute.

Aga Khan Succumbs At Age 79

Moslem Leader Dies From Weakening Of Heart in Night

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—The Aga Khan III, a wealthy potentate to whom 20 million Moslems paid spiritual homage, died today. He was 79.

A glamorous figure on the international scene for many years, the Aga Khan succumbed to a sudden weakening of the heart during the night. He had been suffering from heart disease since 1952.

He was known as a sportsman with an ardent interest in race horses, a devotee of luxurious living, and a man with an eye for a beautiful woman. But he was also interested in affairs of state and once served as president of the League of Nations.

He once expressed his love of material pleasures in these words: "Have fun, it's later than you think."

But of his devotion to his Moslem faith: "Each Friday, like every good Moslem, I spend an hour in meditation and prayer. That is my most beautiful hour."

Prince Aly Khan, 46, has generally been regarded as the heir-apparent, but some doubt recently was expressed as to whether he or Prince Sadruddin, 24, the Aga's Harvard-educated younger son, would be named. The Aga was said to have been disturbed about Aly's playboy activities. Aly is the former husband of Hollywood actress Rita Hayworth.

"Father is right in not discussing who will inherit his title," Sadruddin told an interviewer recently. "It would only cause unhappiness in the family. The question of succession has never been discussed by any of us among the family."

Present at the bedside when death came was the Aga Khan's wife—his fourth—and both sons. Sadruddin is planning to marry Nina Dyer, a London model. The wedding had been set for Monday.

The Aga Khan was flown to Geneva from Paris on June 18 to escape a heat spell which contributed to his deteriorating condition. His weight had dropped to 132 pounds—half of that in the days when he was weighed by his subjects against gold, platinum or diamonds on his various anniversaries. The money value went to the Aga Khan's many charities.

Inside Stories

A group of Sedalia teachers had some interesting experiences on a trip to the East on a school bus. Read about their trip on Page 7, Section 1.

An old battlefield of the Civil War days may soon become part of the national park system. The story is on Page 6, Section 2.

End of a Light Pole

HE SWERVED—A Smithton man, Max A. Smith, 25, was slightly hurt early Wednesday morning when he swerved to avoid an oncoming car and rammed this utility pole in the 1700 block on East 16th. The front end of the 1955 Buick was badly damaged. The broken pole was suspended by its power lines until repairs could be made. (Democrat-Capitol photo)

EASY COOL-OFF—Here's the way the Sedalia Public Pool at Liberty Park looks on a typical day. It's even more crowded on some of those blistering days we've been having. Many swimmers are often seen at night, swimming in the completely lighted pool.

Calls Talk Of Clean Bomb 'Stupid Thing'

Khrushchev Attacks Ike Speech in Talk To Soviet Workers

PRAGUE (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev today labeled President Eisenhower's talk about a clean H-bomb "a stupid thing."

Speaking to workers at the Stalinsk metalurgical plant here, he gave broad approval for the development of communism according to "national peculiarities" and indicated he would hold an early meeting with President Tito in an effort to heal finally the Kremlin's rift with Yugoslavia.

"President Eisenhower is a talented man of great principles," said Khrushchev. "But look at what a stupid thing he says when he says there is a clean hydrogen bomb. How can you have a clean bomb to do a dirty thing? It means the destruction of children and women. What a contradiction. They call dirty things clean."

President Eisenhower told a news conference on June 26 that scientists had told him that, given four or five years more of experimentation, they can turn out a hydrogen bomb "absolutely clean" of radioactive fallout—meaning one that can be used to knock out a military target without endangering innocent bystanders far away.

The Soviet communist boss's comments on Eisenhower came at the end of an hour's talk on communism to cheering workers. With Premier Nikolai Bulganin he was being taken on a rain-spattered tour of the factory and a farm. Ad-libbing in his favorite fashion after completing his formal address, Khrushchev made no further reference to Eisenhower.

Khrushchev defended the right of individual Communist nations to develop their culture, parties and governments on the basis of their own peculiarities. It was a strong endorsement of some of the Communist gospel President Tito has long been preaching.

Speaking directly to Yugoslav journalists at the meeting, Khrushchev said "Don't write what I am saying now because when I meet comrades Tito, Kerdelj and Rankovic, I will tell them myself."

His statement was the first confirmation that Khrushchev and Tito may be planning a resumption of last year's conferences in the Crimea. Yugoslav Vice President Edvard Kardelj and Yugoslav Communist leader Alexander Rankovic are now "vacationing" in the Soviet Union.

Big Demand

The bathing suit business ought to be pretty good on days like this.

Generally fair and warmer tonight and Friday; low tonight in lower 70s; high Friday in mid-90s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 71, 90 at 1 p. m. and 92 at 2 p. m. Low Wednesday night 65.

The temperatures one year ago today, high 88, low 63; two years ago, high 93, low 71; and three years ago, high 104, and low 75.

Moss Talks to Newsmen

Representative Moss Declares Editors Should Shout 'Foul'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Rep. Moss (D-Calif.) told newspaper editors today it is time to shout "foul" because "you have been indicted without evidence" by officials.

Moss, chairman of the House Government Information subcommittee, referred to a Pentagon study group and to the security commission headed by Loyd Wright in a speech prepared for the American Society of Newspaper Editors convention.

Moss said the two government

Won't Allow MKT Closing Of Station

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri Public Service Commission today refused to allow Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad to close its station at Hartsburg, Mo., in Boone County.

The commission said Hartsburg is four miles from U.S. 63 over a winding, hilly country road, no regular truck lines serve the town, and most of its freight—both carload and less than carload—is received or dispatched by rail.

Only in the drought year of 1955 did the Katy suffer a loss in the operation of the station, the PSC noted. Almost all the rich bottomland farm produce is shipped by rail.

"Shippers of outbound freight would be unduly inconvenienced if this agency station were abolished" and they had to arrange for handling through the road's Columbia office, the commission said.

Besides, the PSC noted, the only telegraph office on the line between Tebbetts and Franklin is located at Hartsburg.

"It is our opinion," the commission said, "that this 58-mile sector of a main line of railroad located in the Missouri River bottoms should not be left without the protection which an intermediate telegraph agency station could render, even if only occasionally, for the safety of the persons and property and the prompt movement of trains."

Meanwhile, the Katy asked the PSC for permission to close its station at Schell City, in Vernon County, because it has not been profitable.

Hungary Announces New Series of Trials

VIENNA (AP)—After a week of comparative lull, Hungary's Communist authorities today broadcast announcements of a new series of arrests and forthcoming trials of "counterrevolutionaries."

In the farming village of Nagyoserkesz police arrested 13 alleged rich farmers accused of having organized an antigovernment group during last fall's rebellion.

A Budapest court opened the trial of 13 persons accused of having organized a "union of christian youth." The group, including two girls, is accused of having distributed illegal leaflets, sent threatening letters to Communists and conducted plotting.

Another group is accused of murdering the first secretary of the Budapest Communist party organization, Imre Meze.

Warren Gives Court Opinion

Decision Is 8-0 to Uphold U. S. Government's Order

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld 8-0 the U. S. government's decision to turn over GI William S. Girard to Japan for trial in the killing of a Japanese woman.

The court, in an unsigned opinion, ruled:

1. Delivery of Girard is not prohibited by the Constitution; and

2. In the absence of a constitutional bar, the judgment of the executive department should be upheld.

Girard is to be turned over to the Japanese under a status-of-forces agreement, similar to pacts the United States has with some 50 friendly nations.

The Supreme Court held that in the absence of a constitutional violation the "wisdom of the arrangement is exclusively for the determination of the executive and legislative branches of government."

And, the court said: "We find no constitutional or statutory barrier to the provision as applied here."

Chief Justice Warren read the opinion for the court in a specially called session.

The case had been under consideration by the justices since Monday when they held another special session to hear four hours of argument on it.

Justice Douglas did not participate. He had left on vacation before the court agreed to pass on an order by U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph C. McGarraghy barring Girard's delivery to the Japanese for trial.

Japanese Ambassador Koichiro Asakai was quick to hail the decision as "good news."

Dayton M. Harrington, Washington attorney who was the only lawyer connected with the Girard appeal who was present for today's session.

Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin and a battery of government lawyers were present in the court room.

The decision was a major victory for the administration, which has contended that refusal to turn Girard over to the Japanese would be a grave threat to America's security. The administration argument was that if the agreements under which Americans overseas may be tried by foreign courts for off-duty acts were cancelled, U.S. forces would have to come home.

The decision was a setback for forces in Congress which contend the U.S. Constitution goes with GIs overseas and they must have its full protection.

Girard is accused of the Japanese equivalent of a manslaughter in the death of a woman on a firing range.

Nominates Missourian For Ambassador's Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today nominated Walter C. Ploeser, former Republican congressman from Missouri, to be ambassador to Paraguay.

Ploeser, 50-year-old insurance executive, would succeed Arthur A. Agerton who resigned last March 18. The nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.

Ploeser was a representative in Congress from Missouri from 1941 to 1949. At present he is board chairman of the Marine Underwriters Corp.

He also is president and director of the Ploeser-Watts & Co. His home is at Manchester, Mo.

Farm Leader Sees Socialist Threat to US

Shuman Presents List of 10 Points As Characteristics

COLUMBIA (AP)—Charles B. Shuman of Chicago president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, asserted here last night that "there is an organized socialist front in this country which is an even greater threat to us than Russia."

In a speech before the American Farm Research Assn., which opened a three-day conference here yesterday, Shuman defined socialists as those "who would substitute governmental authority and responsibility for individual initiative and responsibility."

"Socialism attacks private property, personal liberty and the free enterprise system," he said.

Shuman presented this 10-point list of what he said are characteristics of a socialist:

1. Advocating a program of socialized medicine.

2. Favoring an increase of social security benefits at every session of Congress.

3. Favoring more centralized federal aid for roads and schools.

4. Favoring more government spending for foreign aid and remaining silent when attempts are made to reduce the "big" federal budget.

5. Regarding farm surpluses as "a good thing" and hoping to make food a "free utility" like air and water.

6. Saying that prices are "made in Washington," which "destroys a free market by establishing prices through supports and legislation."

7. Keeping the family farm small, the per capita production down, and encouraging inefficient operators to stay on the farm.

8. Calling for a halt to H-bomb tests.

9. Favoring every public power project regardless of merit.

10. Shouting that "tight money" is ruining the country.

Shuman said that to have one, two or three of the attributes probably means that a person is an "unwitting" socialist.

"But if you find someone who believes in all ten," he said, "then that person knows that he is a socialist."

Tells of Survey By Group

Chamber Directors Discuss
Broiler Industry for Area

The broiler industry, which would bring four or five million dollars into this area, was the main topic discussed at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors Tuesday afternoon at the Chamber office. Jack Faber, executive manager, in the absence of Paul Hunnell, director of the manufacturers and wholesaler division, told of the meetings and the work being done by that committee to make a survey of other places where this industry is flourishing and to try to promote the industry here.

At a recent meeting of this committee, Walter Russell, from the Extension Service of the University of Missouri, Columbia, pointed out that Missouri in general was a favorable location for broiler production inasmuch as it is close to the grain belt of the United States which is a definite advantage over eastern and southern broiler raisers because of saving in transportation for broiler feed. He said he felt one of the most important steps would be the financing of broiler houses in the area, which, according to a survey of north Georgia would cost approximately 52 cents per square foot per broiler house, 75 cents per square foot in Texas and 73 cents in California.

It was pointed out that the support of increased broiler production in an area adjacent to broiler processing plants would result in a considerable magnitude of business in many fields, such as feed, transportation of feed, transportation of broilers, electric consumption, lumber, LP gas consumption, other building materials, broiler production equipment, medicines, litter, hatcheries, insurance, labor and the general business and commerce created from an overall standpoint.

The new, very complete brochures of Sedalia which also includes a map and street directory, were passed out and praise was given to William C. Hopkins, public relations division director, his committee and Jack Faber, who also did a great deal of work on the brochure. People of Sedalia and surrounding area have been going to the Chamber office to secure the brochures in great numbers since the announcement they were off the press.

Hopkins stated that his division also sponsored a queen in the Boonville queen contest recently.

D. Kelly Scruton, director of the aviation and military affairs division, stated that his division is continuing its contacts and work on the municipal airport and is attempting to get an airline here. He told the group it would be necessary to have a bond issue to carry out the plans.

The board agreed to back such a bond issue and Vernon Rodick, president of the Chamber, who is president of the National Engineering Co., stated it is impossible to get big industries here without an airline—they simply will not consider a town that has no airline. Smaller industries which do not need to go by air so much will sometimes come, but not the large ones. He said from his own experience he did not care to go by air but he had to in order to save time. This is the objection executives of big industries have—they do not want to have to drive distances to other towns or take the train to reach an airline. It wastes too much time for them.

Wes Murphy, director of the recreation and education, stated he was being transferred by his company and would have to resign as a member of the board. He told the group that in his ten years in Sedalia this was the first time he had held an office in a civic group and he had certainly been enlightened and enjoyed it very much. Murphy went on to say he thought it would be a wonderful thing if everybody could have the privilege of serving on the board. There would certainly be a different attitude if they knew the work and efforts that went on in the Chamber. Murphy said he had made arrangements for an education class in September and a coffee and doughnut session in August when George Morrison, Tulsa, Okla., district manager of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, would come here to explain the class and enroll those interested.

Harry Naugel reported on Appreciation Days which were very successful. He stated the retail merchants division, of which he is director, is indebted to the city for allowing them to cover the parking meters and to the park board for the free swimming on those two days.

In the absence of John Snodgrass, director of the transportation and traffic division and who is ill, Naugel made a report on the parking areas which would soon be available. Work will soon start on some of the, he said, where the Fifth Street Methodist Church building and the house next to it is; the location at Kentucky and Main, the Sedalia Bank and Trust lot; Main and Lamine location; and the St. Francis Hotel location where the basement can also be used, making a double deck parking area. This will take care of the off-street parking to a great extent, he said.

An announcement was made that a 4-H Achievement Show will be held at the Smith-Cotton cafeteria on July 24-26 and that open house will be held on July 25, at which refreshments will be served.

Virgil Corson, director of business relations, stated that his division is drafting a clearly-defined solicitation policy which will be completed and on which he will give a full report next board meeting.

Jess Brown, director of the membership division, announced two new members: Everett White, of the Everett White Insurance Agency, and Andrew Anderson, Parkview Laundry. He stated that although his division was not bringing in as many new members as it had hoped to, it was retaining practically all of the members it had originally.

Rodick commented he felt that was a fine thing, that it was really as important to keep the members that are already in than to secure new ones.

Faber gave a report on the work being done by the State Fair committee in which he said the plans for the ham breakfast were moving ahead. He stated that the Chamber was really receiving good cooperation from the Fair officials and that Kenzie Miller was working on the parade. He said the Chamber would again operate the information booth at the Fair and was assisting in locating rooms for those requesting it.

Present at the board meeting were: Vernon Rodick, president; Del Heckart, first vice-president; J. L. Van Wagner, Jr., second vice-president; Mrs. Ike L. Warren, treasurer; Jack Faber, executive manager; Virgil Corson, Harry Naugel, Wes Murphy, Kelly Scruton, Jess Brown and William C. Hopkins, directors.

Ike and Pakistan
Leader Hold Talks

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Suhrawardy of Pakistan held a second round of talks today keyed to stabilizing the Middle East in the face of any new Communist peace offensive.

The 64-year-old Asian leader of the largest Moslem republic in the world sees Pakistan as a leading force in promoting Moslem unity against Communist "peace" blandishments.

In an exchange of toasts with Secretary of State Dulles at a state dinner last night, he denounced communism as bringing "utter poverty, chaos and loss of soul" to any country which embraced it.

Dulles said that although Pakistan and the United States were half a world apart, the two were united by a common danger and a common purpose.

The number of civil and criminal cases in federal district courts increased from 23,000 in 1899 to more than 90,000 in 1951, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Plan Defense
In Air Force
Haircut Case

TOKYO — U.S. Airman 3.C. Donald Wheeler met with his civilian attorney today to plan his defense for the next session of his court-martial for refusing an order to get a "white sidewall" haircut. The hearing is scheduled for tomorrow.

Wheeler, 20, from Cortez, Colo., said it's "hard to say" what the outcome will be.

"I'll just wait and see what happens. I don't like to count my chickens before they hatch," he said.

His attorney, Murray Sprung of New York, said he "has a good chance to beat it. I think he should be acquitted."

Wheeler, a member of a U.S. Air Force honor guard platoon, is being tried for disobeying a direct order from his superior officer, an Air Force spokesman said, and not for refusing to get a "white sidewall" haircut. A "white sidewall" strips the hair bare from the ears to the crown.

Sprung said Wheeler did not disobey the order, but challenged it. The order was issued by Wheeler's commander, 1st Lt. William Shortt, Seattle, Wash.

Sprung said his defense would be that the haircut order was modified by a higher ranking officer than Shortt but Wheeler was placed on restriction and could not comply.

Conviction could carry maximum penalties of a bad conduct discharge, six months at hard labor, a reduction in rank and forfeiture of two-thirds pay for six months.

Wheeler said he has requested transfer from the honor guard platoon three times but that Shortt told him several months ago the only way he could get transferred was "by recommendation" or "by court-martial."

Wheeler also said for the past two or three weeks Shortt has said only "hello" to him.

"He doesn't act rude to me or go out of his way to bother me. He just acts like an officer," Wheeler added. "I don't think he likes me."

Shortt's only comment on Wheeler's statement was a groaned, "Oh, no."

Moslem Leader Ill

GENEVA — The Aga Khan, 80-year-old spiritual leader of the Ismaili sect of Moslems, was reported in "extremely serious" condition today after a sudden weakening of his heart during the night.

His two sons, Aly Khan and Sadruddin, were at his bedside at his villa in Geneva.

The Aga Khan's French heart specialist, Prof. Gaudart d'Allains issued a statement saying: "During the night the arterial tension lowered considerably, provoking great alarm."

"The general condition requires an intensified treatment. The patient had a restless night and his condition remains extremely serious."

Patrolman Is Killed
In a Gun Battle At Newark Last Night

NEWARK, N. J. — A Newark patrolman was shot down and fatally wounded in the streets here last night by a Bible-toting factory worker as dozens of horrified passers-by looked on.

Patrolman Jack Woomer, 31, the father of three children, died in Beth Israel Hospital a short time later as surgeons prepared to remove a bullet from his skull.

Two other policemen were injured in the struggle which preceded the shooting, and a third, Woomer's partner, suffered shock when he saw his friend felled by the bullet.

The alleged gunman, John Henry Dancy Jr., 28, a Negro and himself the father of four, was cut down by two shots from Woomer's revolver, which Patrolman Frank Internado grabbed when his own gun jammed.

Typical Summer Weather Prevails Over the Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Typical summertime conditions featured the nation's weather today.

A small area of pleasantly cool weather prevailed in the lower Great Lakes region, the upper Ohio Valley, New England and the mid-Atlantic coastal states. But it was warm in most other sections, with high humidity in the Gulf states and in most of the Plains states.

There were many showery areas with thunderstorms in some sections. No severe storms were reported during the night.

Clear skies covered the Plains states and east of the Mississippi River except for some cloudiness along the Gulf Coast. It was partly cloudy from the Rockies to the West Coast, with showers in some areas.

Only rain indicated in areas east of the Mississippi River was in scattered thunderstorms in the upper Great Lakes region and along the northern Gulf Coast.

Rivers and creeks in most of eastern Kansas crept back within their banks today but runoffs from drenching rains which hit the area yesterday threatened fresh flooding in southern areas. Rainfall in the Topeka area ranged from 1 inch to an estimated 10 inches in four hours. More than 175 residents of the small farming community of Richland fled their homes. No casualties were reported.

Runoffs from rain in the Davis Mountains swept down a dry river bed into Marfa, in West Texas, last night. The water measured knee deep in the town and seeped into some homes and business places, but ran off quickly. No injuries were reported.

For Buick Owners
Only

If you own an earlier Buick than our 1957 product, you're probably reluctant to part with it — and who can blame you?

After all — regardless of year or model — there's nothing like a Buick to set you a cut above the ordinary run of mortals — make you feel master of all you survey.

But listen. As wonderful as your present Buick is — we can name at least six good reasons why you should look into a 1957 Buick now.

Six good reasons why you should try this dream car to drive — today.

Read 'em — and leap!

6 Reasons To See Your Buick Dealer Today

1. Today's INSTANT Dynaflo® — Response? Wheel! Smoothness? Wow! Never in history such a sweet sense of control, security, safety for yourself, your family, everyone else on the road!

2. Brilliant V8 Power on Tap—This big engine — completely new in 1957 — blends plenty of eager energy with silky silence. World's most advanced combination of displacement, compression, bore-stroke ratio, nodal-point balance!

P.S. You'll like today's Buick prices — and your Buick dealer's high trade-in allowances.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special, Safety-Buzzer standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

3. Zestful New "Nosed" Ride—Take Buick's traditional torque-tube, coil-cushioned ride — cradle it to the lowest center-of-gravity in Buick annals — and brother! You never had it so smooth.

4. Buick's One and Only Safety-Buzzer® — What's the safest pace you want to drive at? Whatever it is, turn a dial till that figure appears in a "window." If you exceed that pace, the buzzer tells you. Simple. Thoughtful. A great safety advance.

5. Unique Ball-Joint Handling and New Braking — Your steering is amazingly easy. Your cornering is amazingly deft. Your braking stays on the level. (And Buick's powerful new brakes dig in for straighter, swifter, safer stops!)

6. Soave Low-Sweep Styling—Clean, crisp, classic lines in the finest Buick tradition—beautiful to look at and live with. Up to 3.4 inches lower, yet more room inside. Including legroom for the folks in the middle!

Sorority Girls Bake Birthday Cakes For Buena Vista Residents

Epsilon Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held its regular monthly service program June 1, when Mrs. Ed Brummet and Mrs. Bob Lindstrom each baked a cake and took them to Buena Vista for a birthday party for the four people there who had birthdays in the month of June. The two assisted in serving the cake to all the people at Buena Vista.

This is a project recently started by the chapter and in addition to the cakes, magazines and flowers are also taken to the home which bring a lot of pleasure. The ones in charge of the program for July will be Mrs. Joe Van Horn and Mrs. Irvin Parks.

Friday, July 12, the chapter will hold an ice cream social at the court house featuring pecan, cherry and apple pie, the proceeds to be added to the treasury to carry out projects planned by the chapter.

The president of the chapter is Mrs. Richard Flippin; service chairman is Mrs. Gail Flores, Jr., and ways and means chairman, Mrs. Bill Burkholder.

Miss Doris Eck Is Honored at Shower

A bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Doris Eck, who will be married in the near future to Earnest Buso, Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Bob Williams, 2012 East 14th.

The home was decorated with spring flowers and the table was covered with a white cloth with fringe. An arrangement of pink and white flowers in a crystal bowl was flanked with pink tapers in crystal holders. A large angel food cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Albert Walz and Mrs. Leo Robb.

Refreshments were served to: Mrs. Albert Walz, Mrs. Gene Turner, Mrs. Ernest Strickler, Mrs. Don Walz, Mrs. Leo Robb, Mrs. Gilbert Eck, Mrs. Elizabeth Menefee, Mrs. Grace Geminden, Mrs. Will Wright, Mrs. Susie Eck, Mrs. Ray Miller, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. H. OBITUARIES

Jephah Grant Hughes

Jephah Grant Hughes, 92, died at 6 p. m. Tuesday at California, Mo.

Mr. Hughes was born Feb. 10, 1865, in Cooper County, son of Thomas and Sarah Elizabeth Meyer Hughes.

He was married to Miss Ida A. Cook on March 10, 1886. His wife, the daughter of William Marion Cook and Sarah Phelan Cook, preceded him in death in 1923.

Mr. Hughes was a member of the California Christian Church and had been a member of the California Masonic Lodge since 1900. At one time he was the Montevideo County Collector.

He is survived by seven children, Mrs. Maude Gaines and Mrs. Ruth Higgins, both of California, Mo.; Mrs. Ima McDonald, Austin, Texas; Mrs. Theda Brown, Chicago, Ill.; Everett Hughes, Bridgeport, Conn.; Norman Hughes, Lockport, Ill.; and Vess Hughes, Jadin, Mo.; 11 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Williams Funeral Home in California. The Rev. Melvin McCurdy, pastor of the California Christian church, will officiate.

Miss Ruth Longan will play the organ and Mrs. John Imghish will be the soloist.

Burial will be in the California Masonic cemetery.

The body is at the Williams Funeral Home.

E. W. Gradolf

E. W. Gradolf, 60, a farmer who resided north of California, Mo., died Monday at the V. A. Hospital in St. Louis. He had been a patient at the hospital for five months suffering from a heart condition.

He was born in 1897 north of California, son of August and Dora Gradolf. He was married May 16, 1920, to Amelia Roth, who survives.

Besides his wife, Mr. Gradolf is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. William Porter, St. Louis, and a son, Clyde Gradolf, St. Louis; two sisters Mrs. Florence James, San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Verna Geiger, Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gradolf resided in St. Louis until four years ago when Mr. Gradolf retired because of ill health and they moved to the farm north of California.

Mr. Gradolf was a member of the Masonic Lodge in St. Louis. Funeral services were held on Thursday at 2 p. m. at the St. Paul United Church of Christ at Jamestown, Mo. The Rev. John Neinsted will officiate.

Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The body is at the Williams Funeral Home in California.

Harry Clark

Harry Clark, a former resident of Versailles, died Wednesday in St. Louis.

He was born Aug. 4, 1912, at Salt Lake City, Utah, and was associated with his mother in the restaurant business in Versailles.

There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a. m. at the Kidwell funeral home. The Lions Club, of which Mr. Clark was a charter member, will conduct the service.

Burial will be in the Versailles cemetery.

Richard Hepler Rites

Funeral services were held for Richard Hepler, former Tipton resident, Saturday, July 6, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Wichita, Kan., and burial was in White Chapel Memorial Garden.

Mr. Hepler, 46, died July 3.

Death was followed by a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife, Irene (Reibenspies) Hepler and four sons and one daughter.

Mr. Hepler was a foreman at St. Joseph's Hospital Laundry.

Those from Tipton attending the funeral included a brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Reibenspies and a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hainen and daughters, Betty and Mary.

Thomas B. Owen

Thomas B. Owen, 50, son of Mrs. Clara Owen, Sedalia, and the late Samuel Owen died Wednesday July 11 at 2 a. m. at the Spearville, Kan., hospital after a lingering illness.

Mr. Owen was born Jan. 11, 1907. He was united in marriage to Miss Bonnie Boyer Sept. 3, 1936. To the union was born three children, a daughter, Mrs. Jim Moore, and two sons, Tommy Joe and Sammy Lee, of the home. Other survivors are Mrs. Clara Owen, his mother, 1705 West 16th, Sedalia, and two brothers, Aubrey W. Owen, 2109 West Third, and P. Cecil Owen, 823 West Sixth.

The late Mr. Owen and family have made their home in Spearville, Kan., for the past 12 years. He was a member of the Spearville Masonic Lodge.

The body will arrive in Sedalia Sunday morning and be taken to the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel to lie in state until 10 a. m. Monday when funeral services will be held there at 10 a. m. Monday. The Rev. D. Warren Neal, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian Church will officiate. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Annie Sumner

Mrs. Annie Sumner, 94, Versailles, died Tuesday at a rest home in Versailles. She was one of Morgan County's oldest residents.

Mrs. Sumner was born July 31, 1863, in Morgan county, the daughter of James and Nancy Rutherford.

Her husband, Joel Sumner, preceded her in death.

She is survived by a nephew, Royce Moser, Versailles, and a niece, Mrs. L. L. Barber, Kansas City.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Thursday at the Versailles Baptist Church. The Rev. Loyd Johnson will officiate.

Burial will be in the Versailles cemetery.

The body is at the Kidwell Funeral home in Versailles.

Arthur Fitch Rites

Elder Doyle Funnell of the Latter Day Saints officiating.

Mrs. M. O. Stevens sang "Closer Walk With Thee" with Mrs. Mae Moser at the organ.

Pallbearers were Romer Ashbrook, Lester Patrick, Emmett Farris, J. W. Banty, Arthur Wilson and "Blackie" Caldwell.

Burial was in the Crown Hill Cemetery.

SW Bell Honors Ten Workers At Dinner Meeting

Nine Sedalians and one resident who is working at Knob Noster, all installer repairmen with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., were honored at a dinner held at the Pacific Cafe Wednesday evening at 7 p. m.

W. W. Murphy, local Southwestern Bell plant foreman, presented each with a ten-year anniversary award, observing ten years of service with the company. They were F. J. Sedlak, H. L. Richards, D. R. Fischer, L. H. Parker, R. L. Owens, K. H. Long, J. M. McFarland, W. N. Coley, C. L. Schick, all of Sedalia, and K. D. Ash, who resides in Sedalia and works at Knob Noster.

Hollis Hickman, a toll-test boardman, received a safety award commemorating 30 years of on-the-job duty with no accidents. Other Sedalians receiving this award were Ray McCarty, 15 years; Lee Parker, Glenn King, and Gordon Williams, all for ten years of accident-free work. The presentation was made by Fred Crnic, who also received a 15-year award.

Air Force Halts Work On Missile Navaho

WASHINGTON — The Air Force today halted work on the multimillion dollar guided missile Navaho which it once claimed would be as good an atomic warhead carrier as a ballistic weapon.

The Air Force said the Navaho program, started in 1946, was being eliminated because of present and anticipated budget curtailments of Air Force spending.

Nat'l Engineering Has Open House Tuesday

On Tuesday night, National Engineering and Manufacturing Co. held open house from 7 to 9 p. m. for employees and their families.

Guided tours were conducted through the plant in groups of 10 to 12 people. A number of older employees acted as guides for them, and at the close of the open house, approximately 350 visitors had gone through the plant.

This is the first time it has been possible for these people to view the plant in actual operation; since National is now operating on a three-shift or 24-hour basis, the visitors could follow the manufacture of the products through the entire plant, from the time raw materials arrived until the finished product was ready for shipment.

At the conclusion of each group's tour, the members were invited to the new engineering department to enjoy refreshments served by the wives of some of National's employees, Mrs. Raymond Dillon, Mrs. Calvin Balke, and Mrs. Eldon Schlesselman.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the tour, and it is planned to have the same type of tour for the general public in Sedalia sometime in the near future.

Outbreak of Illness Hits Baptist Camp

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — A mass outbreak of illness, apparently food poisoning, hit a Baptist encampment for boys last night and sent about 50 of the campers to a hospital.

Twenty-four of those treated were kept at the hospital as patients. The others were released. None was reported in serious condition.

Talk on 'Lagoon Sewage System' Given to Lions

A talk on "Lagoon Sewage System" was given to the members of the Sedalia Lions Club Wednesday by Paul E. Decker, of the Missouri State Division of Health.

Decker told of the new sewage disposal system, but a few years in existence and which has proved very successful for smaller communities. His explanation was the smaller communities revert to this type of sewage disposal because of the cost per capita and it being ample to handle such community.

He explained Sedalia, Booneville, Warrensburg, and such towns and cities are too large to handle sewage by the lagoon system. It is necessary to have an acre of ground for 100 to 200 population for the lagoon type.

The speaker was introduced by Al Gloss, program chairman.

President A. B. Warren announced the appointment of several members to various Club committees. He called attention to a Lions information committee which will report to the club on Lions activities, not locally but on state, national and international. This committee is composed of the local clubs two International Counselors, E. B. Smith, chairman, and D. Kelly Scruton.

Guest at the meeting was James Kriesel of the Sedalia Fruit Co., of James E. McNeil.

Try Obtaining FBI Files In Clinton Case

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Defense attorneys in the Clinton segregation trial were battling today for complete access to the formerly secret FBI files. They demanded to see exactly what they contain regarding the 16 accused men and women.

"We are going to try for everything we can get," a lawyer said.

The defense already has obtained one document from the FBI file — a signed statement by Robert G. Gross, chairman of the Anderson County (Clinton) School Board.

But it has not seen a summary of the agents' reports on the violence at Clinton.

This document is in the hands of U.S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor, who has withheld a ruling on whether defense attorneys are entitled to examine the report.

The FBI entered the Clinton case last December after riots had broken out over enrolling Negroes in the high school there. A Baptist minister, the Rev. Paul Turner, was beaten for escorting six Negroes to the schoolhouse.

On trial today are 15 Tennesseans, including a pregnant housewife. The 16th defendant is dark-haired John Kasper, New Jersey segregation leader. They are accused of flouting a federal injunction not to interfere with integrating the high school.

It is the first state-supported high school in Tennessee to mix the races.

A dramatic courtroom battle — with a dozen opposing attorneys on their feet at the same time — developed when the defense demanded to see the FBI files.

"We should have it now so we can prepare our case and not be forced to wait until we are sandbagged," said J. Benjamin Simmons of Washington, D.C., who represents Kasper alone.

"The defense asks for the records for the purpose of preparing for cross-examination," said George W. Williams of Baltimore, former federal district judge.

"They only want the file so they can intimidate our witnesses," rumbled big-shouldered John C. Crawford, the U.S. district attorney who is prosecuting the case.

That brought a greater storm of protest and objections from the defense side of the courtroom. "Gentlemen — gentlemen quickly restored order. They instructed Crawford to hand over the one document, Crossno's signed statement.

The basis for the angry dispute was a recent Supreme Court ruling that defendants in a criminal case are entitled, under certain circumstances, to study FBI files to impeach a witness and to prepare a defense.

Defense lawyers did not disclose what Crossno's statement said. They indicated, however, that the defense would demand full access to the FBI file on the government's key witnesses.

Fined For Not Cutting Grass in Vacant Lot

BALTIMORE (AP) — Irving A. Kolker, who wouldn't cut grass without a notice from the police, has received his notice — and a $25 fine.

Kolker was given a suspended fine of $15 last year for the same offense — failing to cut and clean the empty lot he owns in North Baltimore.

Kolker has promised to cut the lot after last year's trial, but said last month he had to have an official notice. He told the same thing to Patrolman Stephen J. Culatta of the sanitation squad, who was glad to oblige.

Police Force Quits

HUBBARDSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — State police today paroled this town of 1,162 population after the resignation of the police chief and the entire force of three men let the town without police protection.

Police Chief Howard Taylor and his three patrolmen mailed their resignations to the Board of Selectmen Tuesday.

He said he and the other three officers resigned because of their trouble with "hot-rodgers," drivers of jalopies.

Taylor accused some parents of not cooperating with him in the enforcement of regulations pertaining to "hot-rodgers."

Move to Draft Civil Rights To Negro Voting Protection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sponsors moving today toward narrowing the enforcement provisions of the Eisenhower administration's civil rights bill to the single field of protecting Negro and minority voting rights.

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) disclosed he is drafting such an amendment. Senators Clifford Case (R-NJ) and Kuchel (R-Calif.) said in separate interviews they support the principle of converting the House-passed bill into strictly a voting-rights measure.

Leaders called the Senate into session early to resume debate on a motion of Sen. Knowland of California, GOP floor leader, to bring the House measure before the Senate for action.

In opposing this motion, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) and other Southerners have contended the House bill would permit the attorney general — backed by troops, if necessary — to move into the South to enforce school integration and racial desegregation in public places.

Russell told reporters that as a result of the Southerners' attack on the terms of what he calls a "vicious" measure, opposition to the bill as it now stands is mounting.

"I have been greatly encouraged by the developments of the last few days," he said. "I have come to the conclusion that the Senate will not pass the bill in its present form."

One of these developments was Russell's conference yesterday with President Eisenhower. The Georgia senator evidently brought away new hope that the administration itself will move toward a compromise.

Sen. Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic leader, agreed with Russell's view that the Senate will not accept the House bill without changes.

"A civil rights bill will be passed, but not in the form in which it is pending now," he predicted.

The apparent trend toward compromise brought from Rep. Celler (D-NY) a statement that "there seems to be no fight in the administration."

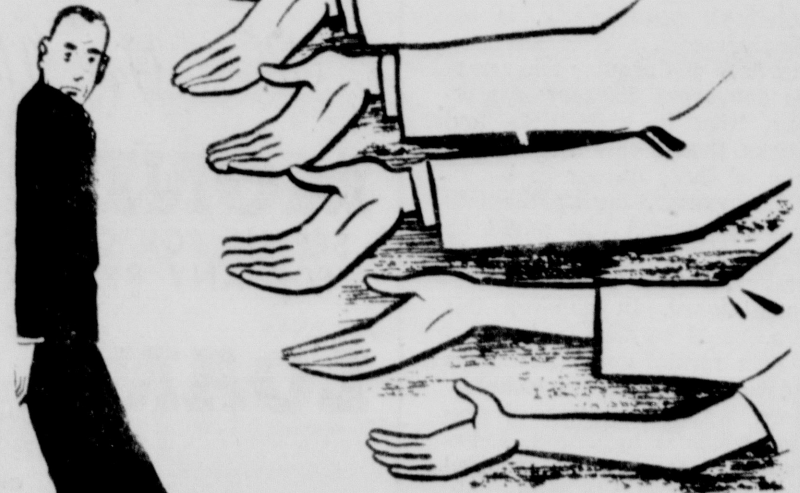

Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and a strong advocate of the administration-backed House bill, said, "The President bends with every wind."

Eisenhower has said his objective is to insure the voting rights of all citizens. He has expressed surprise at the interpretation Russell and others have placed on the bill's powers.

Child Bride Is Home

MUNFORD, Tenn. (AP) — An 11-year-old child bride was home with her parents today and her father says he may seek an annulment.

Jesse H. Scott, 44-year-old divorced truck driver, and Portia Virginia Johnson were wed last May 27 at Senatobia, Miss. The bride returned to her parent's home after the ceremony, went to live with Scott June 30, then went back to her parents last Saturday.

Scott said Portia's father, Leroy Johnson, objected to the marriage but her mother didn't.

Moscow Radio Denies Exile Of Leaders

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio says none of the deposed Kremlin leaders is being persecuted.

It made that declaration in announcing that Georgi Malenkov is being hustled off to run a power plant 1,800 miles from Moscow and the other ousted leaders are getting other unspecified jobs.

The broadcast last night also asserted that the appointment of the former Premier as manager of the hydroelectric station at Ust Kamenogorsk is proof that the Soviet system is democratic.

But observers pointed out that Malenkov—target of the most serious accusations of the top four purged leaders—would be unable to offer much opposition to Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev in Ust Kamenogorsk even if he should try. It's about as remote a spot as there is in the Soviet Union.

The broadcast did not give the nature of the new assignments for V. M. Molotov, Lazar Kaganovich and Dmitri Shepilov, who were ousted from their Kremlin posts along with Malenkov for "antiparty activities." It said only that they had been given other work.

Malenkov's new job, the broadcast said, "makes it clear that the myths being spread by some of the western journalists about the persecution of the members of the antiparty group are merely intended to defame the democratic Soviet system and the Central Committee of the Communist party."

Cole Joins Lake Project

Since news spread around that Boone and Callaway counties were in joint effort to raise $50,000 for a big lake near Millersburg, neighboring Cole County is going to make it a threesome.

Across the Missouri river from Boone and Callaway, the Cole County chapter of the Conservation Federation of Missouri at Jefferson City, has decided to join in the fund raising project.

That ought to make raising of $50,000 a cinch for what sportsmen will get out of this tri-county recreational spot. Columbia and Fulton are only a few miles distant from Millersburg, and Jefferson City 25 miles, as against 40 to the Lake of the Ozarks. The lake development will cover a total of 456 acres, have a lake surface area of 205 acres and 6.7 miles of shoreline. The land will be turned over to the Missouri Conservation Commission which will develop and maintain it.

While Pettis and adjoining counties are much better situated in proximity to the Lake of the Ozarks than those counties in Central Missouri north of the Missouri river, a Tebo Lake or some other kind is desirable nearer Sedalia.

Many members of the fishing fraternity are of the opinion a lake in Pettis county would not interfere to a great extent with the enlarged attractions of the Lake of the Ozarks. But such a fishing spot would provide facilities for those who would like to go alone or take their families for a quickie fishing trip in the morning or evening.

Conservation chapters in this area of Central Missouri might well band together to explore the idea of a lake project similar to the Millersburg one, especially if the State Commission can be persuaded to participate in its maintenance.

Zhukov May Come to Washington

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—One thing you can expect to come out of the crisis in the Kremlin is a visit by Eisenhower's old wartime friend, Marshal Zhukov, to Washington.

It has been known that the President has been talking for some time about inviting Marshal Zhukov to the United States. He felt that the former Russian commander in Berlin was a man who would understand straight-from-the-shoulder old soldier talk. And the President, as an old soldier, cherishes as his dearest ambition the hope of bringing peace to the world.

In the past, however, State Department and Central Intelligence advisers have discouraged an invitation to Marshal Zhukov. They said he wasn't important enough in the Soviet set-up.

Now things have changed. Zhukov has been elevated to the Presidium, thrown his weight behind Krushchev, is one of the top men in the Kremlin. He could now be invited to Washington as Russian minister of defense without any necessity of a return visit by Eisenhower, as would be the case with Krushchev and Bulganin.

So don't be surprised if Marshal Zhukov comes to Washington.

Another Mellon—The White House secretly sounded out the late Andrew Mellon's nephew, Richard K. Mellon, about following in his uncle's footsteps as Secretary of the Treasury. Andrew Mellon served in the Harding-Coolidge-Hoover cabinets, set the fiscal policies that led to the last depression. Outgoing Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey recommended the Mellon heir as his successor. But Richard balked. He wasn't ready to take on the job yet, he said. . . . Mellon has been doing a fine job for the rejuvenation of his home town—Pittsburgh—in cooperation with Mayor David Lawrence, Democrat.

Nonsmoking Cabinet—It won't please the tobacco companies, but a majority of Ike's cabinet has sworn off cigarettes. Following the American Cancer Society's alarming report on smoking, the President asked his cabinet how many still smoked. Only four admitted they did: Secretary of Defense Wilson, Attorney General Brownell, Secretary of Labor Mitchell and Secretary of Interior Seaton. The remaining six members, plus Vice-President Nixon, claimed they don't smoke. Ike said he handed his last pack to a friend several years ago and hasn't touched a cigarette since.

Pentagon Censorship—Secretary of Defense Wilson has been blue-penciling his subordinates' speeches. Most often gagged have been Adm. Arleigh Burke, the Navy chief, who has had nine speeches censored, and Secretary of the Army Wilbur Brucker who has had to revise seven speeches, all since the first of the year. Wilson ordered them bluntly to change their speeches or throw them away. Burke has had trouble before. He was head of the secret Navy propaganda office "Operation 23," set up to work against the Air Force. As a result, President Truman refused to promote him, finally did so after great pressure from the naval lobby.

Guest Editorial—

ROYALTON (Minn.) BANNER: Not A Nice Picture, But—Did you ever go out into the field to look for your husband or son, who was long overdue to come to dinner or supper, and find him pinned under the tractor or his arm caught in a machine with his lifeblood having long since flowed into the ground? Did you ever receive an anguished call for help from your friend or neighbor's wife asking for help to get him from under a machine or to rescue him from a machine holding him trapped in its gears?

The above is not a nice picture to contemplate, but it does happen, and when it does it brings a shocked realization that it can happen to many who had the idea that it "can't happen to me."

Because of the type of operation on the farm, where one man works alone, farm workers are particularly susceptible to serious accidents. In a factory, if something goes wrong, others can many times help the victim and administer first aid. On the farm, seldom is help immediately available.

Farmers, therefore, owe it to themselves and their families to learn and practice safety. A few minutes saved in not stopping a machine to correct a mechanical defect is not worth losing an arm or a life. Neither is too heavy a load hauled, worth a life—your life—that can be lost by a tractor overturning. You have but one life to live—Think—practice safety.

his maiden speech on Hells Canyon. Even Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana, who's been against Hells Canyon, listened carefully. Later he voted with Church. . . . Another freshman who impressed colleagues with his first speech is California's Congressman D. S. Saund, first Hindu ever elected to Congress. He delivered a short but stirring speech on civil rights. He told how he not only won his citizenship but a seat in Congress, though he was a Hindu born in India. "My opponent said that if I were elected to Congress, because of the color of my skin the southern members would not accept me," Saund said. "But I wanted to show the world that in Uncle Sam's family there are no foster children. I bear testimony to the fact that the gentleman from Oklahoma, Carl Albert, came from his state and campaigned for me; the gentleman from North Carolina, Harold Cooley, sent telegrams on my behalf; and the gentleman from Tennessee, Jere Cooper, put me on the powerful Foreign Affairs Committee. They all come from southern states." . . . Then Saund turned to his southern friends and added softly: "My wife and I play tennis in the morning. We set our alarm at 6 o'clock. My wife lets me sleep until 6:15, but when the clock goes beyond that, the sheets and the blankets are off me. She stands there and she says, 'Honey, you are holding up the game.' No one is against those leaders from the south who have shown so much brilliance and patriotism. . . . All we are saying is: Please modify your way of thinking. Look at the clock. Go ahead and don't hold the game up."

Quickie Tax Write Offs

You're going to hear a lot more about the quickie tax write-offs given to big utilities. They're hard for the public to understand because they involve complicated finance, not hams or deep-freezes. However, the loss to the taxpayer runs into millions.

Sen. Estes Kefauver has asked the Federal Power Commission to investigate the manner in which public utilities used the money they saved through quickie tax write-offs. The findings are interesting.

The purpose of the quickie tax write-off is to give a company more money in time of war or emergency for expansion not needed in times of peace. The idea was worked out when the Packard Motor Co., a year before Pearl Harbor, refused to expand its plant to make airplane motors because it argued it wouldn't need the plant after the war. So the government agreed to write-off the cost of the plant in five years; thus Packard would not be paying taxes on an empty, unused plant after the war was over.

However, the power commission report sent to Kefauver shows that the utilities have been using this tax saving to declare dividends. In fact, EBASCO, the big utility management concern, has been advising clients to do this.

This means that American taxpayers, through the much-abused fast tax write-off, are paying part of utilities' dividends to stockholders. Or to put it another way, if your neighbor up the street has invested in utility stocks, he will be getting dividends from the money you pay in taxes.

Ike, Yes; Stassen, No

There is one rather unhappy aspect to our effort in the disarmament talks in London.

The American people quite evidently have tremendous confidence in President Eisenhower as a keeper and promoter of the peace. They seem predisposed to support almost any venture he undertakes in this field.

And though most Americans do not appear too excited by the prospect of success or perhaps the wisdom of the London talks, undoubtedly they would give our effort the benefit of the doubt if the President himself were closely identified with the negotiations.

It is quite something else to have them in the hands of Harold Stassen. An NEA check of top editors' views in strategic sectors of the country disclosed that people feel a general lack of confidence in Stassen at London. As far as can be judged, this is an ingrained reaction to his mercurial behavior in the political arena.

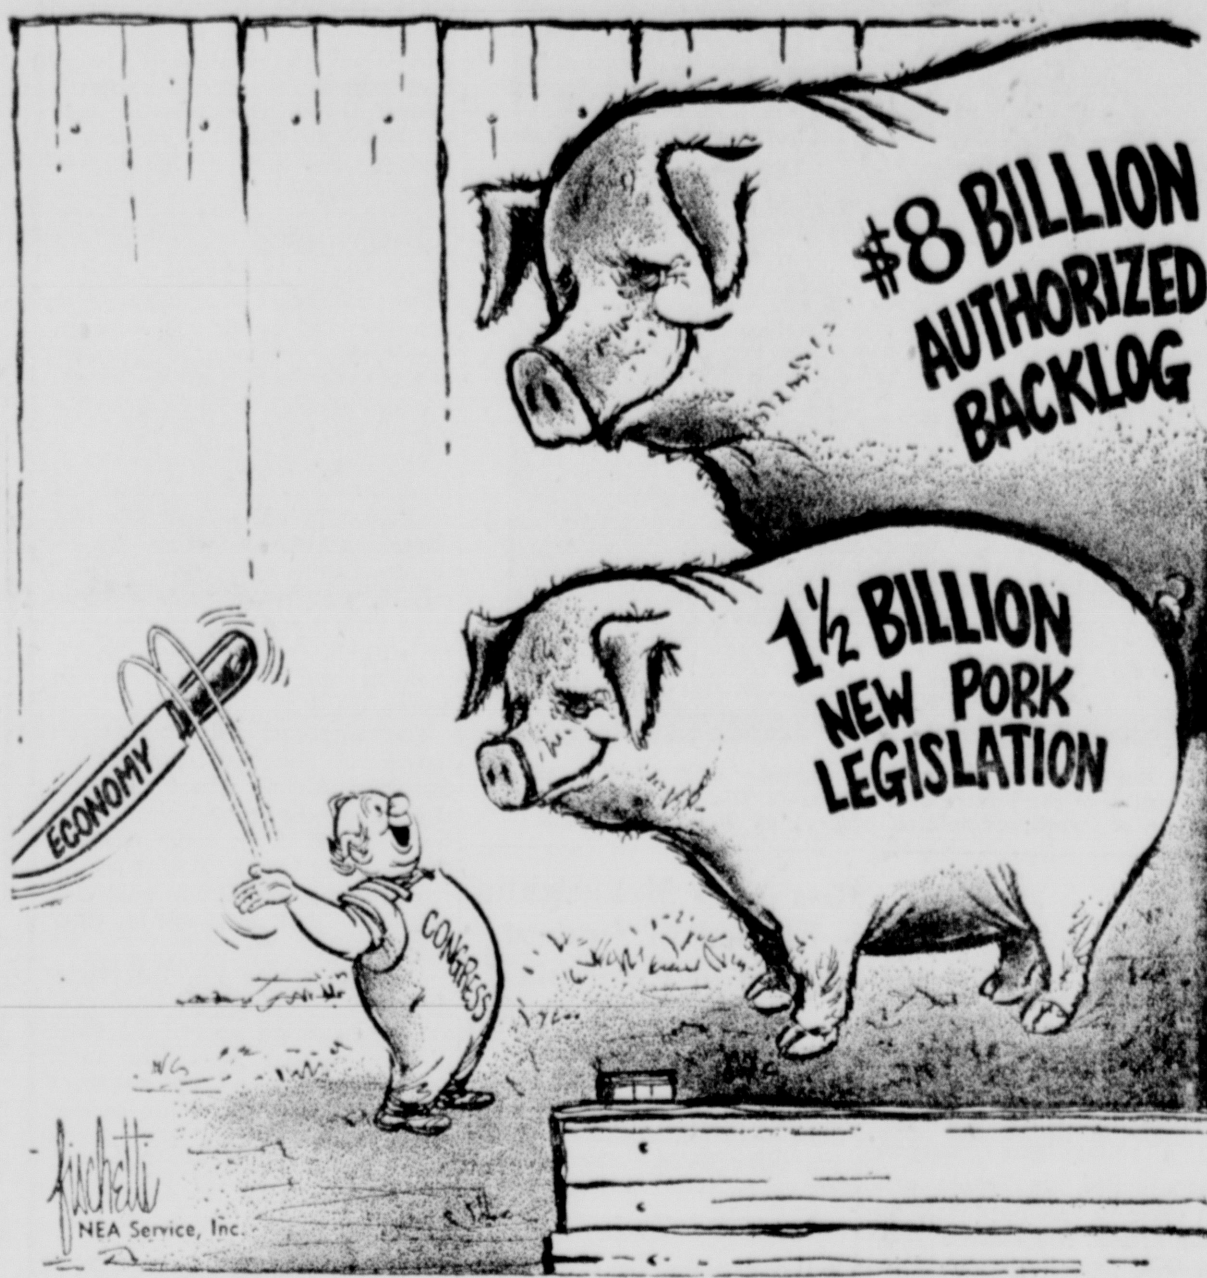

This lack of confidence puts a curious reverse twist on an effort that, in the light of Mr. Eisenhower's standing, ought to command the very fullest backing.

Ike Causes Puzzlement on Three Issues

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—On three major issues this year—the budget, disarmament and the civil rights bill—President Eisenhower has caused puzzlement if not confusion by his public statements. The latest is on civil rights.

He had to go back and do some unscrambling on the budget and on disarmament. He didn't start fighting for his budget until it was almost too late. It remains to be seen whether he fights for his administration-backed civil rights measure.

His position on this has now angered one of the civil rights bill's strongest supporters, Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), who said yesterday: "There seems to be no fight in this administration."

On the record peacetime budget of nearly 72 billion dollars which he offered Congress early this year, Eisenhower first took the position it was tight as could be. But he said it was the duty of Congress to cut it if it could.

As an economy wave swept over the country and the Congress, he started talking of ways the budget could be cut. Congress took this as a go-ahead to do some real cutting. Then Eisenhower had to make a nation-wide broadcast to appeal for support against cuts in the budget.

That might not have been necessary if he had fought for the budget from the beginning. On disarmament he had been pretty consistent in saying this country insisted on foolproof guarantees against Russian cheating.

But at his June 19 news conference he so badly scrambled what he said that some reporters came away thinking they had heard a major change in American policy. Some thought the opposite. The White House finally had to explain there was no change.

The Republicans promised action on civil rights in their 1956 campaign. Eisenhower made it a major part of his program in his State of the Union message to Congress in January. A bill was written in the Justice Department. Atty. Gen. Brownell fought for it all year.

It got hearings in the Senate and House judiciary committees. Celler helped pass in the House, over the protests of Southern Democrats, the kind of bill Eisenhower's administration asked for.

All year Eisenhower kept saying it was a "moderate and decent bill." By last week his Senate Republicans were ready to fight Southern opposition in the Senate to get the civil rights bill through.

Eisenhower had had plenty of time to familiarize himself thoroughly with the bill, either by careful reading or briefings from Brownell. But on July 1-Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), the Southern leader, called it "devious. . . vicious. . . cunning."

And at his July 3 news conference Eisenhower said he had been reading the bill that morning and found parts he couldn't understand. This aided the Southerners, who could argue it was so devious that Eisenhower couldn't understand his own bill.

Rumors soon floated around the capital about a compromise to pacify the Southerners. Yesterday Russell saw Eisenhower 50 minutes, came away saying Eisenhower's mind was "open. . . not closed to amendments which would clarify the bill." Eisenhower, nevertheless, was understood to have made no commitments.

By this time Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, was so sore he said: "The President bends with every wind. I can't see a Truman or a Roosevelt — 'Teddy or FDR' — yielding so pusillanimously."

Graham Says Two Battle Over the Soul

NEW YORK (AP)—Two great powers consider man's soul the most important thing in the world even though man himself may not think so, says evangelist Billy Graham.

The Baptist minister from North Carolina told 18,000 persons in Madison Square Garden last night that God and Satan wage a continuous battle for man's soul.

Graham took as his text Matthew 16:24—"For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Satan, Graham said, "works day and night to snare" a man's soul.

"It is more valuable than anything else and he tries to blind you to how valuable it is," he said.

"God himself has declared that one soul saved is worth the entire world. We don't realize the price God put on each soul."

"Why is it that a man can make a million dollars and still be miserable?" Graham asked. "He's lost his soul, that's why. And he urged his audience to cast aside materialism and give thought to spiritual things."

At the evangelist's call for "decisions for Christ," 509 persons came forward, raising the total of the crusade so far to 29,236. Total attendance since the New York crusade started May 15 is 948,000.

Graham announced that he will conduct a second religious crusade in San Francisco, starting April 27. Graham preached several years ago in the San Francisco Coliseum. Next April's crusade, which is expected to last at least four weeks, will be held in the Cow Palace.

New York City's Riverside Church contains a carillon of 70 bells, the largest in the world.

Spectre of the Future

Creeping Inflation Invites Controls No One Wants

By JOSEPH A. DEAR
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Disturbing cracks in the national economic picture can no longer be ignored. And at this very moment George Humphrey is singing his swan song as Secretary of the Treasury.

It must be galling. Not only to Humphrey, but to the entire business community. Humphrey is more than the "strong man" of Ike's cabinet. He is a symbol of the business community's sublime faith in its ability to manage the economic affairs of the nation sanely and successfully.

It isn't that the country is falling to pieces under the direction of the Republican "team." It's simply that the "team," and particularly the squad run by Humphrey, hasn't been able to do much better than the Democrats did.

There was a time when Ike talked in terms of a $60 billion budget. As Humphrey noted, that was before the election in 1952. But there is every reason to believe this figure had moral significance to Humphrey. Balancing the budget, reducing the national debt, these were more than mere talking points to Humphrey.

The budget is more or less in balance, as was Truman's in the non-Korean war period. The national debt was $267 billion when Ike took office. It is $276 billion now.

During his first year at Treasury, Humphrey attempted to convert a larger portion of the debt to long term obligations. Under the Democrats, 68.8 per cent of the debt was in short term loans. (That was unsound, the new team said.) But 68.4 per cent of the debt still is in short term loans. And because the total debt is larger, the floating debt also is larger by about $9 billion.

Humphrey candidly admits partial failure. "My successor," he told investigating senators, a few days ago, "can be critical of me because we have not been able to make the progress we desired. We've just about held our own."

In this Through the Looking Glass world of Washington any man who runs fast enough to hold his own has achieved success of sorts. But Humphrey's not the type to be satisfied with that.

Increased demand for money, which has driven interest rates up, explains the lack of demand for government bonds, according to Humphrey. And that is one of the cracks that mar the economic picture.

Another crack is the continuing rise in the cost of living. (It went up 0.7 per cent in May.) The administration is inclined to blame this on the farm price support program. Actually, though, the farmer isn't living high off the hog. Prices he gets are up 1 per cent over last year at this time, but his costs are up 2 per cent. So he's 1 per cent to the bad, in spite of the support program. And there's no telling whether the farmer would even be if it weren't for the program.

Humphrey has openly expressed his concern about the "creeping inflation" of the last 15 months. The inflation "will get beyond you," he told senators, and he warned it was "idle" to suppose the country could live with it safely.

Of course Humphrey opposes government price and wage controls. And so does Ike. But what's to be done? Ike's answer now is another call for business-labor statesmanship. If that fails, the administration might have to fall back on controls of some sort. And that would be bitter medicine indeed.

Humphrey's departure is impending, so he won't be on the "team" when and if that awful day arrives. And no matter the cracks in the national economic picture, Humphrey's own financial picture is rosy. His holdings increased in value from $7 million to $12 million during his years of service here.

Teachers Return From NEA Convention; Have Fine Trip

The bus load of Sedalia teachers who attended the National Education Association in Philadelphia, Pa., arrived home Tuesday afternoon.

The school bus, supplied by the school board, was a good advertisement for Sedalia, and the teachers who traveled in it are grateful for an enjoyable as well as an educational trip.

Hotel reservations were made in advance by J. O. Miller, sight-seeing tours were planned as a whole in smaller groups, souvenirs were purchased freely, and cameras snapped continuously. Several dinner parties were arranged for interested members.

Robert Van Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Van Horn, acted as guide in Washington, D. C., directing the group to Mt. Vernon, through the White House and the Capitol, and to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

A University of Pennsylvania law student guided the bus on a tour of Philadelphia and was so impressed with the friendliness of the group that he plans to visit here later this summer.

Smaller groups took tours to many interesting places throughout the trip.

At the convention, everyone enjoyed the musical program by the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, the Navy Band and the Philadelphia High Schools. There were outstanding speakers including Vice-president Nixon. The display rooms, educational movies, departmental meetings, and the state's rooms at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel were open to all. The delegates conscientiously filled every minute with convention business which concerns Sedalia schools.

Seventeen members of the group made an overnight trip to New York City. Time quickly passed with sightseeing tours, a Broadway play, "The Happiest Millionaire," starring Walter Pidgeon, and visiting with former Sedalians, Robert Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Rucker.

Triplett and daughter, Linda.

The return trip via Susquehanna River Valley, Niagara Falls, Ill., Ohio Turnpike and Springfield, Ill., was climaxed with the sight of Missouri and finally the people, including Dr. and Mrs. Heber Hunt, who met the bus in Sedalia.

On the return trip Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alden, who moved from Sedalia to Toledo, Ohio, three years ago, met the bus on the Turnpike and visited with friends during the supper hour.

Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Miller, P. A. Sellers, Mable Howe, Marian Knight, Thelma Cook, Marian Smith, Anna Elliott, Lena Balke, Pearl McQueen, Gladys Leiter, Anna Belle Lee, Minnie Van Horn, Gwendolyn Tuck, Edna Wither, Jean Tuchs, Nellie White, Jessie White, Ruth Burford.

Goldman Completes Army Teletype School

Pvt. Larry H. Goldman, son of Mrs. Bert L. Goldman, 812 West Seventh, recently was graduated from the eight-week teletype operation course at the Army's Southern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

Goldman entered the Army in February of this year and received basic training at Ft. Carson, Colo. He is a 1956 graduate of the University of Missouri.

Virginia Staley, Opal Boesch, Catherine Garman, Frances Garman, Catherine Riner, Mildred Heynen, Hazel Gray, Elizabeth Gray, Georgia Zulauf, Elizabeth Yurasich and son, Tom, Lloyd Yarnell was the driver of the bus.

Street Projects To Be Considered At Council Meet

Curb, gutter and paving for several areas of the city will be voted on at the next City Council meeting following the hearing that was held July 8.

The work is proposed under a law allowing the city to initiate improvement programs to connect two improved streets when the distance is not greater than 1200 feet. Under this law a resolution must be passed for each project, then a public hearing must be held before the final resolutions and ordinances can be voted on. Areas for which the public hearing was held on July 8 are:

mat coat West Tenth from Limit to State Fair Blvd.; curb and guttering the west side of Beacon from Third to Fourth; paving with a hot-mix asphalt mat coat, Beacon from Third to Fourth; curb and guttering and paving with a hot-mix asphalt mat coat, Hancock from Broadway to Tenth; curb and guttering and paving with a hot-mix asphalt mat coat, Marvin from Broadway to Tenth; paving with a hot-mix asphalt mat coat, Engineer from Broadway to the south line of Fifth.

Atlas, Dusek Will Team Up In Tag Match

Mighty Atlas, taken in tow by the referee for his viciousness here a week ago, has found a sympathetic partner in Omaha's equally villainous Joe Dusek.

Atlas was disqualified for his rough-housing against Wild Red Berry and the only person willing to listen to his protest was Dusek, who consoled the Hollywood strong man.

What probably irked Atlas most of all was the fact his disqualification marred his latest victory string. However, he quickly pointed out to Legion Matchmaker Gust Karras that he's still unpinned in a deciding fall.

The Dusek-Atlas alliance will bear fruit here next week when the two powerhouse wrestlers face the popular, scientific duo composed of Bobby Bruns and Bill "Red" McIntyre.

The team match—definitely one of the best of the season—will headline next Tuesday night's outdoor mat program at Sedalia's Liberty Ball Park. The initial card under the stars proved a great success and has encouraged both the Legion sponsors and the matchmaker to line up more top summertime attractions.

McIntyre is back in his home state following a successful Southern states campaign. The red-haired Ottumwa heavyweight really became a favorite here about two years ago when he figured in the state title picture.

"Red" welcomed Bruns' invitation to team up for the tag skirmish against Atlas and Dusek. Probably the memory of his wild match with Dusek a year ago is still fresh in Mac's mind. It was Dusek who ended Red's victory skein at that time—and Red will certainly relish the chance of getting Joe back in the ring.

The loquacious Berry, often called a walking dictionary, yelped for the opportunity to match his cunning against a man of mat science. So Matchmaker Karras has taken the sly fox from Pittsburg, Kan., at his word by signing ever-popular Gentleman Jim Dobbie as Berry's opponent next Tuesday.

Dobbie, who ranks high both in the national and state title contendership picture, will probably rely heavily on his clever abdominal stretch in matching wits with Berry. They square-off in the semi-windup.

Of course, Berry's most widely known maneuver is his gilligan leg twister, a grip the fiery Kansan made famous during his long tenure as the No. 1 wrestler in the nationally televised matches out of Hollywood's Legion Stadium.

An individual square-off between Atlas and McIntyre will open the Tuesday outdoor card. It marks the first time the two men have ever crossed paths, which is sure to attract considerable attention locally.

Tickets for the Tuesday card are now on sale at the Pacific Cafe and Midway Shoe Repair Shop. The matches start next Tuesday at 8:15 p.m.

Try to Promote Moore-Anthony September Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two rival fight clubs have joined forces to co-promote a 15-round light heavyweight title bout between champion Archie Moore and Tony Anthony on Sept. 11.

It will be the first time in 32 years that the Olympic Auditorium of Los Angeles and the Hollywood Legion Stadium have gone together on such a promotion. The proposed site for the nationally televised fight is Gilmore Field in Hollywood.

The unique situation developed yesterday when singer Frank Sinatra and his associates withdrew as the proposed promoters. Promoter Cal Eaton of the Olympic and matchmaker Jack Leonard of Hollywood Legion had raised objections to a Sinatra promotion. The singer's attorney, Jules Covey, said Sinatra was disturbed by these objections, and didn't care whether he made or lost money on the deal.

"His main idea," Covey said, "was to bring a championship fight to California, and he succeeded in doing this."

With Sinatra bowing out, Eaton and Leonard agreed on the co-promotion.

J Bar H Performer Is Gored by Brahma

CAMDENTON, Mo. (AP)—A J-Bar-H rodeo performer was gored by a Brahma steer last night.

Jim McConquodale of Garden City, Tex., was gored in the arm by the steer. The injury was not believed serious.

A crowd of more than 10,000 turned out for the second night of the annual rodeo, billed as the third largest in the U. S. The program will continue through Sunday.

Games Are Postponed

Both Babe Ruth League games scheduled for Wednesday night postponed until Friday night because the Liberty Park diamond was too wet. On Friday, Andersons will play Mullins at 6 and McCowns will play Western Auto at 8 o'clock.

Bob Purkey Leads Nat'l In Earned Runs

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Young Bob Purkey, Pittsburgh's chubby-faced right-hander, looks as though he may be following in the footsteps of teammate Bob Friend, the Pirate ace who gave the pennant contenders all sorts of troubles two years ago while leading the National League in earned run averages.

Friend, a bit battered these days, was the guy who almost owned Brooklyn's champs in '55. He was 14-9 that season for the last-place Bucs, with a 9-5 mark against the first division, while finishing with a 2.84 ERA.

At the moment, Purkey is 9-7 and leads the league with a 2.70 ERA, gaining his second victory over Milwaukee 5-2 last night. It was the only game scheduled in either league.

Purkey stopped the Braves with a six-hitter, striking out seven and walking two. A single by Red Schoendienst came ahead of Ed Mathews' 18th home run in the first inning, but Purkey then kept the Braves in check while the Pirates battled back against Bob Buhl. Bob Skinner hit a two-run homer and Gene Baker bagged it with a three-run single.

Purkey, a Pittsburgh kid who spent most of last season in the minors after wrenching a knee in spring training, has picked up seven of his 1957 victories against the NL's five-team first division. He's beaten Brooklyn three times, Cincinnati twice. Only St. Louis has given him trouble, beating him twice in two decisions.

The Pirates, handed Buhl his fifth defeat in 14 decisions when a walk, Dick Groat's single and an error by Frank Torre loaded the bases with two out in the sixth. With the runners on the move, Baker then lined a 3-2 pitch through short to junk a 2-2 tie.

20 Game Losers May Surpass Wins for Season

NEW YORK (AP)—There may be more 20-game losers than 20-game winners among major league pitchers this season.

Only seven pitchers had 10 or more victories as the campaign entered its second half today. They are Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox (12-6), Early Wynn of Cleveland (11-10), Jim Bunning of Detroit (10-2) in the American League and Larry Jackson of St. Louis (10-4), Jack Sanford of Philadelphia (10-2), and Ruben Gomez of the New York Giants (10-7) in the National.

Only Pierce and Wynn from among this group were 20-game winners in 1956. Seven others in last year's select category are unlikely to make the grade.

Don Newcombe of Brooklyn, a 27-game winner in '56, and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee have won only eight. Johnny Antonelli of the Giants has seven, Bob Lemon of Cleveland five, Frank Lary of Detroit four and Detroit's Billy Hoelt one. Herb Score of Cleveland, another 20-game victor, had a 2-1 record before he was sidelined with an eye injury.

Frank Lary, the Tigers' top pitcher a year ago, is one of five with at least 10 defeats. He has lost 11. Also with this unenviable distinction are Chuck Stobbs of Washington (2-12), Camillo Pascual, also of the Senators (5-10), Ronnie Kline of Pittsburgh (2-11) and Robin Roberts, Philadelphia (6-11).

England. She is the first of her race, man or woman, to capture a singles championship in the 90-year-old event.

It was the climax of a long struggle for the once-scrappy, long-legged girl who learned her tennis with paddles on New York sidewalks and who often became so discouraged she wanted to quit.

Old-Timers Sidetrack Youth to Take Lead

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP)—A couple of old-timers who have become part-timers on the golf circuit had the "youth movement" temporarily sidetracked today entering the second round of the $25,000 Canadian Open.

Trying to protect a one-stroke lead were 46-year-old Henry Ransom and 40-year-old Ed (Porky) Oliver.

Ransom, who has devoted more time to his sprawling 2,700-acre Texas cattle ranch in the past couple of years than he has to the tour, and Oliver, who spends much of his time at a club job in Canton, Mass., shot three-under-par 68s in yesterday's opening round. Just one stroke back were Don Fairfield and Mike Fetchick along with leading money winner Doug Ford.

Top Jockey Out of Action With Injuries

CHICAGO (AP)—Willie Hartack, the nation's top jockey, was out of action today with injuries suffered in a spectacular spill but new X-rays will be needed to determine how seriously he is hurt.

Dr. Herman J. Carr, Arlington Park Physician, said Hartack might be able to resume riding "in a week or so" if the X-rays show no broken bones.

However, if there is a fractured vertebra, Carr added, Hartack would be sidelined for "about four months." This would cost him his chance to break Eddie Arcaro's 1952 record of winning 40 stakes races. Hartack has won 27 stakes races this year worth $922,840.

Hartack himself was in cheerful spirits and said he hoped he will be able to ride the Kentucky Derby winner Iron Liege Saturday in the $100,000 added Arlington Classic.

The 24-year-old rider was thrown heavily to the ground yesterday in the first race at Arlington Park.

His mount, Reverie Knoll Farm's juvenile colt Smoke-Me-now, turned a complete somersault after running up the heels of the tiring Spy boss.

Hartack was thrown to the outside near the stretch turn and missed being struck by several horses. His mount scrambled to his feet uninjured and finished the race riderless.

Hartack suffered multiple head abrasions and was given sedatives.

Hartack, contract rider for Calumet Farm, has had 185 winners this year in his bid for his third straight year of jockey honors.

He topped the nation's riders in 1955 with 417 winners and in 1956 with 347.

Major League Homers Drop Five Per Cent From the 1956 Total

NEW YORK (AP)—What's happened to the rabbit ball?

Major league home runs are down almost five per cent from the 1956 totals. Through last night's game, 612 home runs were hit in the National League and 532 in the American for an aggregate of 1144.

In as many games a year ago, 1,196 circuit blows were produced—651 in the National and 547 in the American.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, who tied the major league record last season with 221 homers, top both loops with 100. This is 18 behind their 1956 pace. Kansas City heads the American League with 91, representing an increase of 40 per cent over last year.

Little LEAGUERS

The Jaycees beat the Elks 14-4 in the first game of Tuesday night's Little League play. Randy Short, on the hill for the Jaycees, proved to be more than the Elks Club could handle, even with Buzzey Knapp relieving Dicky Brewer in the third. Crooks, the Jaycees' lead-off man, was the hitting star for the evening. He had a perfect four out of four.

The second game saw Adco defeat Rotary Club by a score of 10-3. Lang pitched the entire game for Adco and Rollie Zey had to be relieved in the fourth by Freddie Merry for Rotary.

In the first game of Wednesday night's action, Rotary suffered another loss, 10-0, at the hands of Sedalia Ice. Randall went the entire game for Sedalia Ice and got his shutout. Again Rollie Zey pitched for Rotary and was relieved in the top half of the third by Shaw. Glenn Whitney continued his fine hitting record for Ice, knocking out his eighth home run for the current season.

The second game, between Kiwanis and Jaycees, was a good old-fashioned pitchers' duel for four innings. It was then that the Jaycees' Woolery hit a long homer off the left field fence with one on. The Kiwanis counter-attacked this with two runs in the next inning, but Woolery again pounded one out of the park in the fifth. This clinched the game for the Jaycees, giving them a 6-4 win over Kiwanis.

Thursday night's schedule: 6 p.m., Adco vs. Kiwanis; 8 p.m., Sedalia Ice vs. Elks.

Only two Monday nights remain in the race for attendance queen. Four clubs remain in competition as the race draws closer and more competitive. These last two nights might decide the winners so all Little League fans are urged to come out to the park and support their favorite team.

Says Pirates' Star Pitcher Is Scientific

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Bobby Bragan, happy over the modest four-game winning streak of his young Pittsburgh Pirates, said today his star right-hand pitcher Bob Purkey "is a real scientific pitcher—not a thrower."

After watching Purkey beat the second-place Milwaukee Braves 5-2 last night on a six-hitter, Bragan declared:

"You know, Bob was a nibbler at one time — always trying for the corner of the plate. Now, he's throwing that strike ball with better control and he gets ahead of most of the batters. He doesn't overpower them. He has a tricky knuckleball and some other fine pitches. That boy has a real future."

Purkey's record speaks for itself. He has an earned run average of 2.70, tops in the National League. In 110 1-3 innings he has given up only 22 walks and has had 33 strikeouts.

He's pitched five complete games in 12 starts and has hurled one shutout, that against the Giants. Two of his nine victories have come in relief and he's specialized in beating the pennant contenders. He's defeated Milwaukee twice, Brooklyn three times and Cincinnati twice. His other victories have been over the Giants.

One of the three homers he has given up was hit by Eddie Mathews in the first inning last night and it gave the Braves a 2-0 lead. Bob Skinner tied the score with an inside-the-park two-run homer in the fourth and Gene Baker sewed up Purkey's victory with a three-run single in the sixth.

Town-Country Beats New Franklin, 28-9

Town and Country Girls' Softball team defeated New Franklin last night by a score of 28-9. The game lasted only five innings.

Winning pitcher on the mound for Town and Country was Miss Betty Loman, the loser being Lottie Huch.

The next game will be Friday night, at 8 o'clock, with Marshall. It will be played at Center Park, 16th and Center.

'No Use In Kidding'

Forecasts Rework of Minors If Bums, Giants Take Coast

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Top minor league officials predicted today a nationwide realignment of the minors if the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants move to the Pacific Coast.

A higher echelon official said he would not be surprised if at least one higher classification circuit and a number of other baseball cities in the lower minors are forced to suspend operations if the Dodgers and Giants leave New York.

"What's the use of kidding," said Edward Doherty, president of the American Association, "I just hate to think what would

Willie Vaughn Wins 10-Rounder Over Hernandez

CHICAGO (AP)—A new hard-punching Willie Vaughn looked around for bouts with top middleweight contenders today after his TKO victory over rugged Mexican middleweight Chebo Hernandez.

Vaughn, who has made a bigger mark as a boxer than a slugger, unleashed a blistering two-fisted assault to batter Hernandez into helplessness in 2:19 of the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round nationally televised bout last night.

Vaughn went in for the kill in the sixth and seventh rounds after shaking off jolting punches to the head and midsection that had him hanging on in the fifth.

His victory avenged a second-round knockout he suffered in a scrap with Hernandez in Jaurez, Mexico, in 1954. Earlier, the pair fought two 10-round draws.

Vaughn, who was ranked 10th best among the middleweights until he lost a close decision to Bobby Boyd in May, said he expects to be ranked with the elite middleweights again as he works up the ladder toward an eventual title match.

Hernandez weighed 159 to 161½ for Vaughn.

Ruta Lee Has A Good Role In New Movie

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD — One of the best career breaks since Marilyn Monroe's debut in "The Asphalt Jungle" has befallen 21-year-old Ruta Lee.

Ruta—it's a Lithuanian name and her own — has a meaty role in "Witness for the Prosecution," a part so fat that producer Arthur Hornblow believes that it will do for her what "The Asphalt Jungle" did for Marilyn. It was Hornblow who picked the then-unknown blonde and cast her as Louis Calhern's girl friend in the small role that touched off the most fabulous career in recent movie history.

Hornblow said he was looking for the Monroe quality in casting "Witness."

By one of those coincidences of fate that often spawn stars, Hornblow and Ruta happened to pick the same night to attend Frank Sinatra's recent engagement at the Mocambo.

"I got there late," says Hornblow, "and the place was so crowded that I was seated behind Frank. I could hear him but couldn't see him. All I could see was a dazzling blonde. For better than an hour I watched her react-tion to Sinatra. At the end of the show, I had decided that this was the girl. I didn't even know whether she was an actress or not."

Ruta was an actress and a good one. She had been in such movies as "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" and "Funny Face," but she is no longer a blonde. Marlene Dietrich also is in the movie and had prior claim in the blonde department. So now Ruta is a dazzling brunette.

Arthur also wanted to change her name but she rebelled, and it will remain Ruta.

"I know it will come out Ruth in print, it always does. And the wags will suggest that I change my last name to Baga or All Evil or Wakening. But its my name and there's not another one like it..."

NEW YORK (AP)—"Look Up and Live," the excellent CBS-TV public affairs program appearing Sunday mornings (10:30 a.m., EDT) is presenting a series, entitled "The Seeking Years," that explores the problems of young men and women on the threshold of maturity.

Last Sunday in "A Thing of Beauty" by Howard Rodman, three young Broadway actresses—Diana Van der Vlis, Sarah Marshall and Bryarley Lee—played superbly the roles of three competitors in a college beauty contest launched by three boys. The girls ranged from the seemingly most beautiful to the seemingly least beautiful.

avoided the old cliches far more ably than has many a publicized nighttime TV drama.

Next Sunday "The Seeking Years" will examine juvenile delinquency. The following two Sundays will deal with racial relations between teenagers. It is with regret one hears that some southern television stations have refused to show the last two programs of the series.

Combining the finest artful qualities of the television medium with the sincerity that marks the devout and intelligent of all faiths, "The Seeking Years" brings to the home screen the essence of modern religious thought and emotion.

State Battlefield May Be A Part of National Park

HOUSE WITH A HISTORY—This house at Wilson's Creek battlefield near Springfield is the only one remaining of those that were there during the battle. The body of Gen. Nathaniel Lyon of the Union Army was carried to this house. After 96 years of neglect, the Civil War battlefield may become part of the national park system. (AP Photo)

(This is another in a series of features about Missouri. Picture is being serviced to mat subscribers.)

By LUCILE MORRIS UPTON

Springfield Leader and Press
SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (P) — After 96 years of neglect, Wilson's Creek battlefield, 12 miles southwest of Springfield, may become a part of the National Park system.

Bills are pending in both houses of Congress to honor the site where Aug. 10, 1861, was fought the battle that decided Missouri was to stay in the Union.

Many Civil War historians today are dating the decline of the Confederacy from that blow.

Between 800 and 1200 acres of scenic hills and valleys are in the battlefield. They have remained amazingly unchanged through the years. Prickly pear still blooms on Bloody Hill, where Gen. Nathaniel Lyon of the Union Army was killed. Scrub Oak still grows on the rocky slopes, as it did when the Confederates named the engagement the Battle of Oak Hills.

Only one house has remained through the near-century. It is a small frame farmhouse where the body of General Lyon was taken after the battle. The dwelling has been kept in as nearly its original state as possible by its owner, Mrs. Bessie McElhaney. She long has recognized its historical significance and hoped it would become a museum.

Numerous tourists visit the battlefield, although it is virtually unmarked and undeveloped for visitors. Widespread interest was shown in 1950 when a movement to buy 37 acres in the heart of the battlefield brought subscriptions from all over the country. This tract has been offered as a gift to the government as a nucleus for the park.

It is believed that if Wilson's Creek Battlefield Park is established by the government it will be administered jointly with the new Pea Ridge National Park in Arkansas.

While the Confederate Army claimed the victory at Wilson's Creek, its loss in men and equipment was so great it could not follow the retreating Federal Army. The South thus lost Missouri with its vast resources, war supplies, and strategic location. The Confederates were under command of Gen. Sterling Price and Gen. Ben McCulloch.

Texas, Louisiana, Missouri, and Arkansas troops fought for the Confederacy. Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri men bore the brunt of the Federal fighting. Eighteen officers trained at West Point were in the fight—14 on the Federal side.

The battle lasted less than six hours, yet among the approximately 10,000 Confederates and 5,000 Federals engaged about 16 per cent were killed, wounded, or missing. The casualty list of the Union Army was 1300 and of the South 1200. A total of 500 were listed as killed.

After the war, veterans of the Blue and Gray united in reunions at Wilson's Creek. Together they implored Congress to make a national park at the battlefield. Several times in the last 50 years interested citizens have repeated the plea.

Now, as the 100th anniversary of the battle approaches, renewed effort is being made to give the historic site its long over-due honor.

Well-Know Designers Favor Supima Cotton This Summer

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Elegant cotton fashions by America's best-known designers favor supima cotton this summer. Supima is the American-grown, long-staple cotton that comes from three states in the southwest: Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. While it's a strong cotton, it also has superior luster and a silky hand. It comes in many forms. Designers work with it in sheers, woven novelties, broadcloth, georgette, cotton surah, faille, voile, chiffon and organdy. They use it for informal afternoon dresses, dance dresses, short evening gowns. We show it here as two top American designers see it for evening and daytime. The evening version (left), by William Fox, is in white organdy with wide, round neckline trimmed in black satin. Bell skirt also has the black satin, this time used in form of lattice work.

The informal afternoon dress, by Claire McCardell (right) is cotton georgette in green with soft bow top and a pleated skirt with double belt at the waistline.

"Father of Gas Auto"
Father of the gasoline automobile in the U.S. was an inventor named George Selden, who applied for a patent on a "road engine" on May 8, 1879. This patent dominated the industry until Henry Ford successfully challenged it in court in 1903.

You Can Give an Old Chair A New Look With Plastic

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Perk up an old chair with a stylish new cover. If you upholster it of vinyl, you'll have the added advantage of easy care, especially important in the home with children, pets and party-giving adults. It'll take about three yards of material in 54-inch width to do an average sized armless chair. Choose one of the colorful, fabrics available, equip yourself with hammer, screwdriver and shears, as well as burlap and cotton filling, and get to work.

PUT BURLAP over springs. Cut it larger than seat area so edge may be doubled before tacking.

AN OLD SEAT cover serves as pattern for new vinyl fabric when upholstering an arm chair.

TACK INSIDE back of seat at top. Get it tight from top to bottom, stretch from side to side.

Here are some hints for expert upholsterers on using vinyl fabrics. Remove all old upholstery and tacks carefully. Put burlap over slightly larger than that area so that you can pull it taut and double the edges over before tacking it. Trim off the surplus after it is tacked. Throw away the old burlap and cotton filling.

Use the old seat cover as a rough pattern for the new upholstery. It's a good idea not to try to cut it exactly as vinyl fabric upholstery has a lot of stretch and should be fitted directly on the chair to be sure there are no wrinkles. It's best to use oversize pieces and trim after tacking.

Put new cotton filling over the springs. Then take your rough piece for the seat cover and fit it lightly over the chair seat. Mark the exact line of the edge of the seat as the line for sewing. Cut out about one-half inch beyond this line. Then cut out the side and front panels, make welting and you are ready to sew.

Welting is an important item in upholstering with vinyl. It is made by sewing a narrow strip of vinyl fabric, about 1 1/2 inches wide, around a fairly heavy cord. Make plenty of it and make all you are going to use at one time.

The top of the seat should be sewn to the welting, then the welting sewn to the side and front panels. On all four pieces you should fold under about one-half

SUMMER DUET—Crisp brown sugar cookies and a glass of iced coffee make a cooling combination for the dog days ahead.

Beat the Heat With Iced Coffee

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

These crisp brown-sugar cookies, along with a glass of iced coffee, are a wonderful pickup about four inch and sew it to the welting face to face. (When sewing vinyl fabrics on the sewing machine, regulate it so that the stitches are about six to an inch, not closer together. Use a 16 number thread with a size 18 or 20 needle.)

Keep the seat cover pulled taut as you tack it to the bottom frame of the chair with the front corners and then do the back.

Cut notches for fitting after the seat cover has been put in place. Do this carefully. After you make the notches, tuck the seat cover through the opening between chair back and seat. Pull it taut in back and tack it to the frame of the chair back. Finish tacking around the bottom, placing tacks one inch apart.

For the inside chair back cut a piece 6 to 8 inches oversize in both dimensions. Put tacks in two or three places at the top and pull it toward the bottom and tack it to the chair frame.

Get the material as tight as possible from top to bottom first, then work from side to side.

The outside back of the chair is usually easy. The welting can be carried up the sides of the chair and across the top and tacked with regular upholsterers' tacks. Then the large piece for the outside back can be brought right up to the welting, folded under, and tacked with decorative tacks in a color matching the fabric.

A few buttons may be added as an interesting touch and also because they help keep the vinyl tight. Cover large metal buttons with vinyl, and sew them on to the front back before the outside back is covered. Use a long needle for the job. Sew the buttons through the vinyl fabric on the inside back and around the rope or wood supports in the back of the chair.

o'clock on a warm summer afternoon.

For those who like their beverage strong and not-too-sugary, there's something satisfying about these sweet, extra-crunchy tidbits for an occasional snack. Their peacan trim gives them a certain tang.

PECAN PENNIES
Ingredients: 2 cups sifted cake flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup shortening, 1 1/2 cups dark brown sugar (firmly packed), 1 egg, 1/4 cup finely chopped pecans, small pecan halves.

Method: Sift together the cake flour, baking soda and salt. Cream shortening and brown sugar; beat in egg thoroughly. Add sifted dry ingredients and chopped pecans, and mix in with a spoon. If dough is too soft to shape with hands, refrigerate until firm or overnight. Or roll at once into small balls, each about 1/2-inch wide. Place about 1 1/2 inches apart on very lightly greased baking sheets. Press a whole small pecan half on top of each cookie. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) over 8 to 12 minutes. Remove from oven and allow to stand a minute or two before removing to cooling racks with spatula. When cold store in tightly covered container. Makes about 100 cookies.

Note: About 1 1/4 cups pecan halves will be needed for this recipe.

ICED COFFEE
When we brew ourselves a pot of good strong hot coffee in the morning, we often make an extra amount for use in that late-morning or noontime glass of the iced beverage. If this appeals to you, pour the extra coffee into a glass jar, cover tightly and refrigerate until ready to use.

You can, of course, make iced coffee from instant coffee. Double the amount of the coffee powder you usually use for a cup of the hot beverage, diluting it with a little water. (Read the label of the instant coffee to find out whether the brand you are using needs hot or cold water.) Add ice cubes and cold water and stir well.

At Mine a Breton, near the present site of Potosi in Washington County, he sank the first mining shaft and built the first reverberatory furnace for smelting lead in Missouri, established a sheet lead and shot factory, and inaugurated the plan for the colonization of Texas. Do you know his name?

1. How did he begin his career?

A. His early life was spent in Connecticut where he was born in Durham, Oct. 4, 1761. In 1783 he was proprietor of a dry goods and importing firm in Philadelphia and the next year managed a branch of the business in Richmond, Virginia. By 1789 he had added lead mines in southwestern Virginia to his business interests. He married Miss Maria Brown, a Philadelphia girl in 1784.

2. When did he come to Missouri?

A. Learning of the rich lead deposits in Southeast Missouri, then part of Spanish Louisiana, he visited Ste. Genevieve and the neighboring lead district in 1797 and obtained from Spanish officials a grant of land one league square which included Mine a Breton.

He moved with his family to Ste. Genevieve in 1798 and the next year settled in his newly-built home, "Durham Hall," near Mine a Breton, which became the nucleus of the American settlement of Potosi.

3. What were the results of his mining improvements?

A. With his introduction of shaft mining and new smelting methods, he developed lead mining in Missouri from a six-month occupation into a year-round industry.

4. What were his other activities?

A. He built a sheet lead and shot factory, sawmill, flour mill, blacksmith shop, bridges, roads, and a general store at Mine a Breton. In 1809 he helped to lay out the town of Herculaneum, a shipping point for the lead from Mine a Breton.

For a time his business seemed to prosper, but the turnover was slow, collections were hard to make, and the War of 1812 and the depression of 1818-1819 paralyzed all trade and industry. He involved himself heavily in his many enterprises and in trying to exploit the mines on a great scale in 1814 and 1815. When the Bank of St. Louis, which he helped to organize in 1816 and to which he was in debt, failed in 1819, he was financially ruined.

5. What were his plans for Texan colonization?

A. Seeking to retrieve his fortune, he set out on horseback for San Antonio in November, 1820, to obtain permission from the Spanish government in Mexico to settle 300 families in the province of Texas. The Spanish governor, without examining his papers, ordered him to leave Texas. However, with the help of Baron de

Bastrop, whom he had known in Louisiana, his petition was forwarded to Monterey. He returned home in March, 1821, but weakened by the hardships of his journey, he contracted pneumonia and died a few weeks later at the home of his daughter in St. Francois County, shortly after his colonization plans were accepted. His son, Stephen, carried out his Texas plans and is called the "Father of Texas."

6. How is his memory honored?

A. A statue of him, erected in 1938 by the Texas Centennial Commission and paid for by the U.S. Government, stands in front of the old Spanish governors' palace in San Antonio. A vault, inscribed with his name and the date of his death, marks his grave in the Presbyterian cemetery at Potosi.

7. What was his name?

A. Moses Austin.

Over 60 Attend Family Reunion

The Hood-Miller-Williams reunion was held Sunday, July 7, at Liberty Park. This reunion includes many of the oldest residents of Pettis County. In 1860 Alexander and Mary Williams Hood came to Pettis County from North Carolina.

There were eight boys in this family, who grew to manhood in the Flat Creek vicinity east of Sedalia. Ernest, Emmitt and Frank Hood attended the reunion. Ernest of San Bernardino, Calif., had not been to Sedalia in 29 years. Charles Hood, Hutchison, Kan., and Albert Hood, of California could not attend.

Following the reunion Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Hood drove to Kansas to visit their brother, Charles.

Luther Landis, another old resident of Pettis County, was unable to attend. His old home, the Williams settlement, is near McVey School, east of Sedalia.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hood, San Bernardino, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Hood, St. Louis; the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Hood, Smithton; Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Haselwood, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Koonz, Quincy, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark, Janice and Joyce, Pamela Shireman, Hughesville; Mr. and J. E. Miller, Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, Jimmie Lee Miller, Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eickhoff, Kansas City; Eldon Miller, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McKinzie, of Smithton; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McKinzie and children, Otterville; Howard Wells, David and Linda, Sedalia.

John A. Williams, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, Leeton; Mrs. Durward Vannatta, Amsterdam; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cripe, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Everett White and Etta Gene, Ernest White, Kingsville; Ewing White of Gallup, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Baugh, Mrs. Sylvia Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Bohon, Rev. Frank Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William M. McGee, Miss Elsie Thomas, Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gunder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Melvin Hansen, LaMonte; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vaughn, Knob Noster.

Decorated Cakes Our Specialty
See Our Album of Wedding Cakes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Blueberry Griddle Cakes are a summer favorite at our house for Sunday breakfasts. We never mind preparing them because we bake them on an electric skillet right at the table. When the weather's right, breakfast is served on patio or porch and then skillet and electric coffee-maker are easily transported and plugged into outdoor outlets.

Along with the pancakes go maple syrup, of course, and crisp bacon slices. We usually cook the bacon in the electric skillet in the kitchen while we are putting together the pancake batter; then we pour off the bacon fat because we like to use a little butter or margarine in the skillet for baking the griddle cakes. If you want a change from bacon, you'll find a grilled ham steak is also a delicious go-along.

This recipe for griddle cakes calls for a cup of fresh blueberries. But sometimes by the time we have come to lading out the batter for the last two or three cakes, there aren't any berries left in it. So we throw in some extra berries and everyone is satisfied.

Although these griddle cakes are the regulation large ones, each made with one third cup batter, they're definitely on the light and airy side.

Blueberry Griddle Cakes

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, 2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 eggs (separated), 1¼ cups milk, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted), 1 cup blueberries.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Beat egg whites with rotary beater (hand or electric) until they hold peaks that flop over slightly when beater is slowly withdrawn. With-out washing beater, beat egg yolks and milk together until combined. Add sifted dry ingredients and melted butter and stir quickly to gether just until flour mixture is moistened. Fold in beaten egg whites. Cook on a hot lightly greased griddle or skillet, allowing about one third cup batter for each griddle cake. Turn to brown other side when bubbles form over surface. Makes about 14 pancakes, each about 4 inches across.

Consider Husband's Ideas

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

ATTENTION, BRIDES: Your man will sleep relaxed and arise refreshed, if you consider his preferences when furnishing your bedroom. That's the opinion of William Pahlmann, member of the American Institute of Decorators, and author of decorating books. He explains:

"The bedroom is a province too frequently considered the exclusive domain of the wife. A powder pink boudoir swathed in ruffles and lace may be a romantic ideal glamorized by Hollywood movies, but completely impractical for day to day married life."

It isn't necessary to turn the bedroom into an atmosphere of library or den. He suggests that a compromise may be affected by combining the tastes of husband and wife. This, he says, should be done before one penny is spent. The feminine fancy for pastel shades may even be combined with the neutral tones a man finds relaxing, he observes. If ruffled organdy curtains are a must with the wife, tailored draperies and spreads may be combined to make the man feel at home.

As for the furnishings themselves the bed is a place for relaxation as well as sleep, Pahlmann reminds us. It should be long enough so the man's feet aren't hanging over the edge and complemented by some kind of storage area where he can have his books, newspapers, glasses, radio or TV and even a midnight snack.

"The ideal solution in my opinion is a long table with an extra shelf on wheels so it may be rolled away when not in use," he says. "A good reading light will be greatly appreciated by both, particularly if arranged on separate units to keep the glare from disturbing one who may want to sleep."

The bedroom usually has at least one chair or more if space permits. If there is room for two, the wife can have the dainty slipper chair or chaise longue she prefers. But the husband should not be ignored, Pahlmann advises. "A deep lounge chair that fits his frame, with a back high enough for him to lean his head upon, is important to the man's comfort," he says. "It should be accompanied by a table equipped with a reading light, shelf and ash-tray large enough to hold pipe or cigarettes, without ashes spilling. It should come as no surprise even to the new bride to discover the groom has his share of vanity. Why then neglect his need for a mirror of his own? Pahlmann asks.

Men's complaints go to the tip of their toes too, he has observed. There's nothing like soft, warm carpeting to ease the shock of dashing to close windows on a chilly morning. "If feminine tastes must have fluffy scatter rugs to accent fine wood floors," Pahlmann says, "and I think they're the most attractive" don't turn a decorative note into an obstacle course by polishing floors to the slipperiness of a skating rink. You can have pretty, shiny floors without doing that."

One of the saddest stories men confide to each other, Pahlmann says, is the lack of a closet to call his own, and one wide enough to hold his jackets without crushing their shoulders. Too often he's crowded into a corner by the overflow of his wife's wardrobe, his children's playthings or storage, alternately, of summer clothes and winter blankets.

There are no hard and fast rules, he says, for furnishing a bedroom to answer everyone's needs, except consideration, compromise and a lot of creative ingenuity.

The home is the place for people to be happy together, and ought not to be divided into areas that are exclusively male and female. If the homemaker has real difficulties in designing room interiors that accomplish this purpose, she'd find it worthwhile to call in a professional decorator, he says, adding:

"To paraphrase a timeworn truism, 'Man's place is in the home and it's woman's place to keep him there!'"

Four From Local Area Have Been Accepted At Medical School

Four students from the Sedalia area are among the 75 applicants who have been accepted for admission to the School of Medicine of the University of Missouri this fall. They will be first year students in the school, as announced by Dean Roscoe L. Pullen.

The 75 were selected after careful screening by the committee on admissions of the school from an original list of approximately 200 who applied for admission this year, he said. All of those accepted are residents of Missouri, one of the requirements for admission to the School of Medicine.

Sedalia had two acceptances, Charles Henry Brady, 720 West Fifth, and Cecil Lewis Lujin, 508 East Fifth. Others from this area included James Gordon Hall of Versailles, and John Major Laird, Jr., of Warsaw.
